

COMPLIANCE ARTICLES

DECEMBER 15, 2017

AODA CASL Money Laundering Privacy

AODA

---

Top 10 employment law developments in 2017

(Advocate Daily) 14/12-2017

fee. 6. Changes to AODA. The employment standards under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act came into effect for all

CASL

---

#CASL: Clarifications are in order

(Telecom Trends) 14/12-2017

Money Laundering

---

EU agrees stricter bitcoin rules against money laundering, terrorist financing

(Reuters Canada) 15/12-2017

Ontario probes alleged money laundering in B.C. casino

(Report on Business - The Globe and Mail) 12/12-2017

Privacy

---

Experts caution against using digital assistants without knowing where your data goes

(Yahoo! News Canada) 14/12-2017

with their new helper. In fact, former Ontario privacy commissioner Ann Cavoukian says Canadians should think twice before bringing such a

SCC Recognizes Expectation of Privacy in Text Message Conversations

(Borden Ladner Gervais) 13/12-2017

Biometric technology use for security is growing rapidly, but privacy and data protection remain a concern

(Ottawa Citizen) 13/12-2017

they will shield customer data carefully to protect against potential identity theft. London-based bank Barclays introduced its Barclays

Top 9 Ways to Give Protection to Your Business from Crime

(SiteProNews) 13/12-2017

Paper Records When Done with Them While you need to make certain you have phishing e-mail detections, real-time network security, and other

Lawsuit of the week: Google faces class action in B.C. over alleged unlawful collection of Android users' location data

(Business In Vancouver) 12/12-2017

Uber says 815,000 Canadians affected by data breach

(Toronto Sun) 11/12-2017

To unsubscribe from this newsletter Click Here